A movement has been started by a number of the masonic fraternity residing in the northern part of the city, to organize a new lodge to hold its meetings in the Odd Fellows hall on Saunders street. It is the intention of those interested to call a meeting in a short time to talk the matter over, and if found practicable and not detrimental to the other lodges in this city to take the necessary. other lodges in this city, to take the necessary steps to procure a dispensation from the grand master of Nebraska.

The Knights Templar Action.

of Knights Templar, in session at Ce dar Rapids the past week, virtually separates the Iowa knights from the national organization. A good deal of interest in the matter has been developed all over the country, and the subject is likely to be a prominent topic of discussion at the next triennial conclave. The trouble, briefly stated, grew out of the adoption of a new ritual by the last triennial conclave. Many of the knights obected to giving up the ritual which had the tharm of old association to them and claimed that the new ritual was not only unsatisfactory, but was also illegally adopted. So the grand commander of Iowa, Clark Varnum, of Newton, issued an address to the Iowa knights repudiating the new ritual and de laring that the old one was still the legal and proper one to be used. The grand command-ery at Cedar Rapids, passing upon his action, has endorsed it, and so committed the Iowa mights to the revolt against the new ritual The national officers in turn have proclaimed against the lowa course, and declared them rebels, and a lively feeling has been stirred up. One of the officers of the grand commandery of Missouri, said in a recent inter-view at St. Louis, that orders had been given o all commanderies in that state, to admit no lowa knights as visitors, or extend any of the hospitalities of the order, till those rebellious gentlemen consented to work under the new ritual. However they do not seem at all worried over the prospect, and insist that they are in the right, and that the next triennial will justify them in the course they have taken. Already it is claimed that Ten-nessee and two or three other southern states have joined them in refusing to recognize as I the new ritual which the grand mas ter had promulgated. They say they will show at the next triennial that it was foisted upon the knights without formal and legal adoption, and is not at all binding apon any

A most important step was recently taken in Missouri in the expulsion of a mason disbelieving in God. The committee in their report recognized the right of the accused to respect for his honest opinions, but deciared theism fatal to masonary.

The masonic fraternity of New York was deprived of its most eminent member by the death of John W. Simons at Central Valley, N. Y., October 22. The name is familiar wherever masonary has an organization throughout the world.

The Masons of Buffalo, N. Y., will build a fine temple for the use of the order. It has been decided to buy a site on Niagara street, in the business center of the city, for about $13,000. A building te cost $150,000 will be erected on it, a portion of it to be given up

Shortly after the opening of Forest Lawn cemetery an offer was made to the Masons and Odd Fellows, giving to each body about 30,000 square feet of ground gratis on condition of their buying a certain amount of ground in PAX AUX BELLUM.the same vicinity at a price considerably below that which the ground would have been sold to other parties. The Masons availed themselves of the offer, bought forty lots, to which were added the 30,000 feet donated, thus making one of the most beautiful burial sites on the ground. The Odd Fellows took no action on the matter, and as a consequence the offer has been withdrawn. Mr. Craig, the superintendent, says that he would like to see all the secret orders, including the Grand Army, with burial plats in the cemetery, and regrets that they do not make an attempt to secure them now. They cannot buy them as reasonably as before, but he says they can do so now at better terms than they can later.

The following paragraphs occur in the report of Grand Secretary Cline to the Grand lodge I. O. O. F. of Nebraska: It gives me pleasure to report that the success and prosperity of last year is more than duplicated now. They cannot buy them as reasonably as before, but he says they can do so now at better terms than they can later.

The following paragraphs occur in the report of Grand Secretary Cline to the Grand lodge I. O. O. F. of Nebraska: It gives me pleasure to report that the success and prosperity of last year is more than duplicated this. I am sure that this will be gratifying knowledge to all of us, and especially to all those whose solicitude for the good of our order is first, last, and always uppermost their minds. Coupling this year's results in their minds. Coupling this year's results in Nebraska with the reported prosperity in many other jurisdictions, and the general growth and promises reported by the Sover-eign Grand lodge, we are led to believe that in the increasing effort to do good to one an-other and to our fellow-men, this great fra-ternal association is to take no second place.

Other fraternal orders (and the number is getting to be almost legion), instead of standing in one another's way, seem only to be more and more the demand of the age, and a demonstration of what many have long foreseen to be an increasing moral and benevo-ient influence that at last shall weld mankind into one universal brotherhood. So-called fraternal orders that may go down will be found upon examination to be organized too near solely for mercenary pur-poses. Let it be known now and forever that an insurance association is not a frater-nal organizatian. Let us hope the day is far distant when money can take the places of love and sympathy. Should such a time ever come, the world will be material indeed. The following is from the Brooklyn News, and is a pretty good epitome of the process by which one becomes an Odd Fellow, in spirit and in truth: A is admission the candidate sought, B is the ballot we every one vote. C is the candidate, honest and true, the degrees which each passes through is equality on which we stand, is for friendship true heart in hand.

G is the goat we all have to ride, H is the harness to hold us astride. initiation, solemn and grand, J jubilation, the end is attained. K is the kindness the brothers all show, , is the love which healeth all woe. M is the money which eases distress, is nobility none can express. O is our Order, 'tis everywhere found, P its principles, healthy and sound. Q is the quarterly payment of dues, R the receipt which we never refuse the Samaritan kindly and meek,

I is the truth which Odd Fellows speak is for unity, in it we're strong, is virtue, opposed to all wrong. W is for wisdom the Order contains,
X can't be used in rhyme by my brains.
Y is yourself, you'll join us I know,
Z is the zeal which Odd Fellows show.

Knights of Pythias. The seal designed by Brother French and idopted by the grand lodge K. of P., is described by the Spur as follows: The device proper is pentagonal in form, the pentagon being one of the symbolic geometrical figures of the order, and used by Brother French in this connection, because its five sides correspond in number to thefive subordinate lodges with which the grand lodge of Nebraska was organized. The interior of the pentagon is divided into five triangles whose points meet in the center, while their base ines form together the boundary lines; the inverted triangle being the emblem of the subordinate lodge. Under the base line of the pentagon appear the letters F. F. B., they being the motto initials of the order. Adjacent to the outer edge of the lower left side of the pentagon appears the date October 13, and adjacent to the outer edge of the lower right side the figures 1800, the whole indicating the date of the in-stitution of the Grand lodge, viz., October 13, 1800. Along and outside of the two top or apex lines of the pentagon appear the two latin words "Semper Fidelis," that being the motto of the Grand lodge. In the upper left hand triangle of the pentagon stands a knight in armor beneath the word "Grand." On the upper right hand triangle is an altar beneath the word "Lodge." In the lower left hand triangle two full armed knights are represented clasping hands in friendly greeting beneath the word "Knights." In the lower right triangle is the bust of Pythias in armor, beneath he word "Pythias."

The basal triangle bears the coat of arm of the civil government of the state with the word "Nebraska" beneath and the word "of" in the apex of the triangle immediately above it. The words appearing in the five triangles it. The words appearing in the five triangles composing the pentagon, when taken consecutively, will be found to read, "Grand Lodge Knights of Pythias of Nebraska," and the device in each triangle symbolizes the word itself. The representation of a rope encircles the pentagon, touching each of its five angles, while outside of this another circle of similar restorm, forms the intervention. sircle of similar pattern forms the interven ing space into a border on which appears a wreath of myrtle, the signification of which explains itself to every Knight of Pythias. Royal Arcanum.

The Royal Arcanum of Council Bluffs gave a social to its own members Wednesday evening. A series of six parties will be given during the season. These will be select affairs and only those holding tickets will be admitted. They have proved very enjoyable occasions in the past and are ooked toward with much anticipation.

Royal Arcanum Guide says the day is coming when the community will fix the verdict of criminal negligence to the memory of a man who neglects to provide a helpless family with the necessary protection against poverty in the event of his death. Our benevolent fraternities have supple-nented the work of the insurance companies by shielding thousands of families and by educating their responsible guardians, who otherwise never would have appreciated the need of the protection for their little ones or, if appreciating it in theory, never could have

FITCH FAREWELL RECEPTION.

Greeting to the Bishop-Euchre at Brownell Hall-Who Have Been Married the Past Week-Personals.

The Fitch Reception. Mr. William F. Fitch and wife, who are soon to leave Omaha on account of Mr. Fitch's promotion to the management of another railroad, gave a reception at their nome on Nineteenth and Leavenworth streets Friday evening. The reception proper com-menced at 8 p. m. and lasted until 11, when the dancing was indulged in. Elegant re-freshments were served. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Clement Chase, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Boyd, Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Rich-ardson, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Hamilton, Dr. and Mrs. Summers, Colonel and Miss Sum-mers, Mr. and Mrs. Rellins, Mr. and Mrs. and Mrs. Summers, Colonel and Miss Summers, Mr. and Mrs. Rollins, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Barker, Mr. and Mrs. Metcalf, Mr. and Mrs. Crary, Mr. and Mrs. Estabrook, Mr. and Mrs. Colpetzer, General Hawley and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Wheaton, Mr. and Mrs. John Monroe, Mr. and Mrs. Moorehouse, Mr. and Mrs. E. Dickinson, Mr. and Mrs. Annin, Mr. and Mrs. Bachert, Mr. and Mrs. Babcock, Mr. and Mrs. Carter and a number of young society belies and swells.

A Silver Wedding. The home of Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Jenney on Park Wilde avenue was the scene of a very happy gathering on Saturday evening last, the occasion being the celebration of the silver wedding of the above named couple. Mr. and Mrs. Jenney are old residents of Omaha, having been here upwards of twenty years. The consequence was that a large number of old time friends assembled to do honor to the occasion and their host. A most agreeably social evening was spent, which terminated with a sumptuous supper. Several letters of congratulation, and not a few telegrams were received from friends at a distance, wishing the twenty-five year bride and groom a great deal of happiness. Letters and telegrams were not the only reminders of friendship and attach-ment, for the tables were strewn with valuable silver presents, several of which came from afar, the most noticeable being a twenty-dollar gold piece coined in 1863, the date of the marriage, and two silver dollars dated 1808. If good wishes, hosts of friends and sincere attachment avail. Mr. and Mrs. Jenney will celebrate their golden wedding twenty-five years hence, surrounded by a numerous and loving assembly. A Pleasant Party. On Thursday evening last a most enjoya ble party was given by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bannochie at their residence on Leavenworth street. The first part of the evening was most pleasantly spent in listening to vocal and instrumental music. Mrs. Bannochie, who is an excellent musician, rendered some very fine pieces on the piano, and Mrs. F. Bowie, one of Omahas' most promising young vocalists, favored the company with some beautiful Scotch airs. An elegant supper was served. The fleeting hours were a round of pleasure, and all participants joined in wishing the host and hostess a wealth of years to enjoy the comforts of their beauti-

In addition to the congregation of that church a number of prominent Methodists from other parts of the city wer in at-tendance. An appropriate address of welcome was delivered by Judge Fassett, and the bishop responded in a happy manner. The reception was a preliminary to the dedica-tion of Pickering Memorial church, Twenty-second and Binney streets, to-day, and the bishop had a chance to meet and become acquainted with a large number of the memwith a large number of the bers of that church. A Pleasant Gathering.

The earnest workers of the Christian church met at the pleasant home of Mrs. Blanche Kennedy 2217 Maple street, Thursday afternoon. After ample justice was done to an ellegantly prepared dinner the assembled workers resolved themselves into a quilting party, and a merry party of quilters they were. A number of vocal and instru-mental selections were rendered by some local musicians who were present.

Eachre at Brownell Hall. The young ladies of Brownell hall gave one of their pleasant parties in the commodious parlors of that institution last evening. A large number of young society men of the city were favored with invitations and the event was a pleasant one. Euchre was the order of the evening and prizes were awarded to the cest players. Mrs. Colpetzer's Reception. Mrs. Colpetzer gave a reception Thursday afternoon in honor of the Misses Wadleigh. of Clinton, Ia. The parlors were filled with ladies, and a pleasant afternoon was spent.

late for publication. WEDDING BELLS.

M'CABE-O'CONNOR.

The nuptials of Miss Mollie O'Connor and Dr. Nichols McCabe were celebrated at St. Philomena's cathedral at 9 o'clock Tuesday morning. The ceremony was impressively performed by Father McCarthy, the responses being clear and distinct. After the eremony the happy couple and friends repaired to the home of the bride, where they remained a few hours before taking their departure for their future home.

The bride is the daughter of Thomas O'Connor, one of Omaha's oldest and most respected citizens. Nature endowed her richly in the graces both of person and mind, and she is loved by all who know her. The husband, for whom she has left home friends, is in every way worthy of her. He is a prominent citizen of Lincoln county, Nebraska, where, as a man and physi-cian, he has the confidence and respect of the entire community. His pretty home is at North Platte. It is the wish of their friends that this home may always be to them the sunniest, brightest spot on earth.

The groom has been employed for the past four years in the offices of the machinery department of the Union Pacific railway in this city. He is an elegant gen-tleman and has a host of friends. The bride has been one of the most popular employes in N. B. Falconers store. Her home is in Galesburg, Ill. After a wedding breakfast of the Millard hotel the bridal couple left on of the Millard notel the oridal couple left of the 9:50 train to spend the honeymoon visit-ing relatives and friends in Burlington, Galesburg and Chicago, and will be at home after November 15 at 2,608 Charles street.

LEVY-GOLDSMITH.

Leon Levy, of Bennett, and Miss Emma
R. N. Goldsmith, were married at the synagogue on Tuesday evening. The reception and supper were given at the Esmond hotel, and dancing continued until 2 a. m. CONNOLLY-SMITH.

On Wednesday last the Holy Family church presented an unusually joyous appearance, the occasion being the marriage of Miss Rose A. Smith and Mr. James Connolly. Miss Rose A. Smith and Mr. James Connolly. Both parties are well and favorably known in Omaha. The groom is one of our prosperous young merchants and the bride one of this city's most estimable and accomplished young ladies. This happy event has been looked forward to with pleasure by their many friends, and the hour set for the marriage found the church well filled by those anxious to witness the nuptials. At 9 o'clock the wedding march sounded its glad and merry notes, as the bridal party moved up the aisle to the altar. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Agnes, and Mr. T. T. Downey acted as groomsman. Following came the relatives and near friends. Mr. W. F. Weber and Mr. E. C. Noon were ushers. On arriving at the railing, the Rev. P. Koopmans, S. J., proceeded to unite for weal or woe these two mutual hearts. The ceremony was beautiful and impressive, in full accordance with the ritual of the church. The bride wore an elegant dress of white faile silk, walking length. The drapery was of silk net, grace-fully looped with natural roses and jasmine. A white veil, twined with a jasmine spray, constituted her head-dress. In her hand she carried a boquet of white rosebuds and smilax. The bridesmaid's dress was of delicate cream tint with which she wore pink roses. The groom wore the customary suit of conventional black. At the conclusion of the marriage ritual a solemn nuptial high mass was celebrated, the first of the kind ever celebrated in Nebraska. Rev. Father Koopmans was celebrant, with Fathers Dulick and Shaffel as deacon and subdeacon. St. Philomena's choir, with Prof. Shenk as organist, rendered Farmer's mass in G. The exquisite solos were beautifully sung by members of this excellent band of vocalists. An informal wedding break fast was given at the residence of the bride's parents, No. 1401 North Eighteenth street, at which the clergy and many intimate friends were present. The well wishes for prosperity in their new life were showered upon the happy pair by all. At 6:50 p. m. A Wrecked Schooner Found.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 27.-Lieutenant Comnander Emery, commanding the United States steamer Thetis, reports to the navy department, under date of Gulf of Alaska. september 29, that the wreck of a schooner. supposed to be the Lookout, of San Fran cisco, has been found on Alaska Island, one of the Aleutian group, and that no information in regard to her crew could be learned from the natives.

A NARROW ESCAPE

From Instant Death by a Locomotive Engineer.

An Engine Runs Into a Misplaced Switch and Plows Through

Three Box Cars Before Its Course is Run.

"How soon events of even more than ordinary intesest are forgotten," said a popular lo omotive engine or during a recent conversation with the writer.

"Now I will venture to say that not more than a dozen people in this city remember an accident that nappened eight years ago, which was of more than ordinary interest to me and others that I might mention, for in it we nearly lost our lives. I see you are interested now, well it was only a freight wreck, a thing that happens every day, I think you will say, but if you care to listen I will tell you of it, I remember it distinctly, it was two weeks before Christmas eight years ago. I was firing then on the U. P., and was called on to take out an extra. The morning was a cold one, there was ice and sleet on the ground an inch thick. Our train was made up and we started off, bowling along merrily over the every moment going faster until we attained a speed of nearly sixty miles an hour, we were nearing a station about twenty-seven miles west of here. I was standing in the gangway, when suddenly I feit a shock and then I feit myself flying through the air, struck something with terrible force and was unconscious. The engine, I afterward learned, had plunged into a misplaced switch and plowed its way through three box cars before it was brought to a standstill. I was

"But I thought you had a narrow escape re-"But I thought you had a narrow escape re-cently?" put in the writer.

"Yes, I had," replied the engineer, "but as I have but a moment of time I must ask you to excuse me now, but if you will call on Mrs, Land-beck, at 1111 Douglas street, she will tell you of a Similar one." a similar one."

The writer called on Mrs. Landbeck at the number given and found a busy, but genty and pleasant lady who gave him the following pate ticulars of her narrow escape.

MRS. M. LUNDBECK. "You see," "said Mrs. Lundbeck," for a long time I had been troubled with an affection of the head and throat, my head was stopped up the major part of the time, nose stopped up and running, my eyes would water; I had a pain over the eyes and often in the ears. I had to kawk and spit, had a bad cough, would belch wind a considerable and my stomach was out of order, my breathing was

LABORED AND DIFFICULT and altogether I felt very miserable all the time, and to make matters worse I could scarcetime, and to make matters worse I could scarceiy sleep, would wake up with fits and starts and on getting up in the morning would feel as tired
as I did on going to bad the previous night."

"I had read of the success of Dr. C. M. Jordan, in just such cases as mine and I determined to call on him and I am exceedingly glad I did. He examined and told me that I had hypert in the catarrh of the nose and throat also that I had polypus tumors in my nose, I started treatment at once and today I am cured. He removed the polypus and treated my catarrh in such a manner that in two months I was entirely cured,
What more can I say? I would advise any sufferer not to triffe with patent medicines or a physier not to triffe with patent medicines or a physician who knows nothing about treating catarrabut to call on Dr. Jordan at 310 and 311 Ramge Block, who can and will cure it. Mrs. Lundbeck has resided in Omaha for the past fifteen years and is well known by many of our best citizens. A portrait of her accompanies this sketch. She lives at No. 113 Douglas Street, where she may be found and this statement verified. be found and this statement verified.

How Catarrh Is Produced.

Although taking cold is one of the commonest and most familiar of phenomena, yet the dangers of its neglect in treating and its ultimate result are not appreciated. The rule is to let it wear itself out or seemingly to. In a very large majority of cases, catching soid develops in an attack of acute inflamation of some portion of the upper air passages, as being a point of least resistance, and, further, as these attacks recur with increased frequency and gravity, we find the morbid process localizes itself further down and nearer to the vital centers, as regards the so-called liability to take cold, it should be understood that this is due to an existing chronic catarrial inilammation of perhaps so the so-called liability to take cold, it should be understood that this is due to an existing chronic catarrhal initammation of perhaps so mild a type as to give rise to but very trivial symptoms, or even passed unnoticed; but still an existing catarrh, the result probably of a neglected cold and therenewed attacks to which the individual becomes so liable, consists in the lighting up of the old trouble.

As each fresh attack subsides, the chronic trouble makes itself known by more decided symptoms, fresh colds occur with greater frequency and there is finally established a chronic catarrh of the nose and throat with its many annoyances of stopped up nose, lump of mucus in the throat hawking and spitting, pain over eyes and bridge of nose, ringing or buzzing in ears, hacking cough, later on bad oder scabs, unusual dryness of nose and throat, and finally graver trouble lower down in the air passages.

It is very much to be deprecated that as a rule an ordinary cold is allowed to take its own course without treatment. If a part has once become inflamed it is left in a weakened condition which invites renewed attacks from a very slight cause.

The country is flooded with patent medicines.

become himmed it is left in a weakened condition which invites renewed attacks from a very slight cause.

The country is flooded with patent medicines
for the cure of catarrh, which are concected and made attractive for the express purpose of making money. It is utterly impossible to prepare a single remedy to meet the different phases of catarrh. A remedy for one stage may be injurious to another. It is just such wrepararations, with their "guarantee cure" label on, that have weakened the confidence of the great majority of sufferers of this loathsome trouble, of having their disease skillfully treated by a physician who has made a study of the, Ciscase in its every condition, has devised reinedies, methods of applying them and with the large experience of having treated thousands of cases before your case comes before him. The old legend that "Procrastination is the Thief of Time" can be no better exemplified than in gcase of neglected catarrh,
